

2017 IACA International Symposium

June 19-21, 2017 • Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada

The International Association of Crime Analysts (IACA) is pleased to announce its 4th International Symposium, which promises to be an exciting opportunity for analysts from around the world to network and learn from one another. We will have three days of dynamic speakers and training sessions, along with a vendor exposition area!

Never been to Halifax before? Check out all these amazing things to do here!

Registration Rates

Registration opens online starting Wednesday, February 22, 2017!

- IACA Members $302 USD (approx. $395 CAD)
- Non-Members $340 USD (approx. $445 CAD)
- Student/Intern* $229 USD (approx. $300 CAD)

This applies to full-time students or interns not employed by a law enforcement agency.*

All attendees are responsible for making their own travel & lodging reservations.

Answers to frequently asked questions about the event will be posted to the IACA webpage.

For additional information, please send email to: symposium@iaca.net.

Travel Information

Symposium Hotel: Halifax Marriott Harbourfront

- $199 (CAD) per night + 15% HST (tax)
- WiFi available in guest rooms
- Valet & self-parking available for a fee
- On-site fitness center and pool

To make a reservation under the IACA room block, click HERE or follow the link from the IACA Symposium page.

Transportation from the Halifax Stanfield International Airport

- Airport Shuttle – click HERE for reservation.
- Taxis are also available & will take you downtown from the airport for a flat fee.